

August 5, 2011

PALM BEACH GARDENS MEDICAL CENTER

Jolyn Angus
CHIEF NURSING OFFICER

Jolyn Angus was recently appointed as chief nursing officer of Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center. In this role, Angus oversees all nursing departments at the 199-bed acute care hospital and develops clinical nursing programs and processes to continuously improve the hospital's level of nursing service and ability to provide high quality, compassionate health care to its patients.

Angus has been employed within the Tenet Healthcare hospital network since 2002, where she has consistently increased her responsibilities and success as a hospital administrator. Most recently, Angus served as chief nursing officer for John E Kennedy Memorial Hospital in Indio, California from 2008 to 2011.

Angus earned her diploma in nursing from Kingston School of Nursing in Kingston, Jamaica and bachelor of science in nursing from Clayton State College. She completed her master of business administration from Georgia State University and is currently enrolled in a doctorate of nursing practice at the University of Illinois.

