

Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center welcomes new associate administrator

Tony Lodovico has been appointed Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center's new associate administrator, director of business development. He will be responsible for directing and managing the development and execution of strategic initiatives that support Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center's growth.

Tony Lodovico

"Tony is a results-driven, strategic business development executive with a 15-year track of successfully expanding corporate markets and we look forward to having his expertise at Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center," said the Center's CEO Mike Cowling.

Prior to joining Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center, Lodovico was the associate director of business planning and strategy for Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corp. During his 10-year tenure with Novartis, Lodovico also assumed the position of senior business relations manager. His success in these leadership roles is attributed to his successful track record in sales and business development.

Lodovico earned his Master of Education from Florida Atlantic University and Bachelor's degree in Communication from Stonehill College in Northeaston, Mass.
